5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

A Healthy Season.

Notwithstanding the hot, dry Summer Reno has been wonderfully healthy. Hardly one of the cases so common to the season have been heard of by the GAZETTE, and it is generally attributed to the fact that there has been a good deal of wind all the time. However, it is well to be prudent and people should not neglect ordinary precautions. A little copperas dissolved in water to be scattered about is an excellent thing to destroy germs, while clean closets, a well patronized bath tub and proper food and drink are better than doctors' stuff. All drinking water should be boiled and too much ice avoided. The hot sun is not unhealthy if it has no rotting vegetation to work on. Keep the place clean, drain everything dirty into the sewers and Reno will be as healthy as any town in the world.

The Reno GAZETTE is a little inconsistent. All along it was opposed to spending the $100,000 appropriated for building a reservoir on the Carson river for the reclamation of water because the money was taken from the "sacred school fund." But now that one of the members of the board favors using the money on the Truckee river, the GAZETTE is enthusiastic for the measure, and wants the board to get together at once and make provisions for erecting the reservoir on the Truckee. The "sacred school fund" doesn't figure with the GAZETTE when Reno is to receive the benefit. —Carson Tribune.

Not at all. The GAZETTE has not opposed the spending of the money so long as it was spent for the purpose for which it was appropriated, but it does object to the spending of it for any other purpose. The GAZETTE was satisfied to let the money go in the Carson for it seemed to be the common consent of all interested that the first money should be spent there, but since it has been determined that nothing could be done and keep within the range of the appropriation we demand that the commission look elsewhere for a suitable place. Much depends upon the expenditure of that $100,000 and if it is wisely invested in the interest of irrigation much good will come of it. But it was not intended for a "milling proposition" and the GAZETTE has simply done its duty in objecting to the money being put to that use.

THE State Fair will open here on the 30th of September and continue six days. The people should take advantage of the opportunity it offers to show visitors about the town and surrounding country and impress upon their minds the possibilities of Western Nevada. If we treat our guests as they should be treated Reno will receive the benefit and at the same time we can help out the Fair. But if we let visitors go away with the impression that we are selfish and cold blooded it will do us an injury. Make visitors feel at home, show them all there is to be seen and take the GAZETTE's word for it we will be rewarded.

Mr. Gladstone's library at Hawarden is one of the finest public libraries in England. It has more than 20,000 volumes. Mr. Gladstone loans his books to any one in the neighborhood who wants to read them. Formerly people could keep them as long as they liked, but a few years ago the rule was made that a book could be kept for one month only. It is the regular free library of the district.

SINCE 1800 the population of Europe has just doubled itself. Then the population was 175,000,000; in 1830, 216,000,000; in 1860, 239,000,000; in 1880, 331,000,000; in 1888, 350,000,000.

PROFESSOR Ayrton says that the power which runs to waste at Niagara Falls exceeds that which could be produced by the annual consumption of 150,000,000 tons of coal.

A SOCIETY has been started in London to promote the development of the science of mesmerism and of the application of hypnotism to practical medicine.

The Contractors of the Charleston to Reck Congressional Relief.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—A report received to-day by the Bureau of Steam Engineering of the Navy Department from one of the Inspectors in the new cruiser Charleston, states that the horsepower developed in her recent official trip will probably not be reported above 4,300. The vessel worked beautifully, every part of the machinery keeping in perfect order without the least heating. She ran six hours instead of four as stipulated in the contract and she worked better during the last hours than at first, proving excellent staying qualities. The speed during the six hours averaging 18½ knots. If this report can be confirmed by an official report the ship will not have made the contract requirement of 7,000 horsepower, which will subject the builder to a penalty of $30,000. The contractors did everything in their power to meet the requirements of the contract. The vessel was built on the plans of the Nannakun, English design, which had about twenty-four trials before she was accepted. It is believed the contractors will go to Congress for relief from the penalty on the grounds that the plans for the vessel were defective.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 4.—The Democratic State Convention met this morning. Hon. Samuel W. Wherry of Cumberland was chosen temporary chairman. In a speech of acceptance he eulogized Cleveland, and at the mention of whose name received great applause. The usual committees were chosen and a recess taken.

Congressman J. B. Riley was made permanent chairman. The platform applauds the action of ex-President Cleveland looking toward a tariff reform and re-affirms the declarations of principles made by the Democracy at St. Louis in 1888, especially that demanding a revision and reduction of tariff taxes. It favors the admission free of duty of all raw materials where it will enhance our product and increase the demand for labor; it denounces trusts and accepts the decision of the people of Pennsylvania on the Prohibition amendments—a declaration in favor of reasonable, just and effective regulation of traffic in ardent spirits. It favors the Australian ballot system and advocates liberal pension by law for all honorably discharged soldiers, but the giving of pensions to other persons is denounced as injustice to those recognized.

Edward A. Bigeler of Clearfield county was nominated for State Treasurer. Adjourned.

By Associated Press.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The Senatorial investigation into the dressed beef and transportation industries arrived at a position this morning where it became necessary to resort to vigorous measures or acknowledge the whole affair a farce. G. T. Swift, a millionaire dressed beef dealer, had been subpoenaed for the third time and it was reported that he had agreed to appear this morning. He did not come. P. D. Armour, on whom a summons was served, stated that he could not come at the hour named, but would let the Commission know when he would be able to attend. Secy. George T. Williams of the Union Stock Yard Co., who was ordered to appear with a list of stockholders of the company and other information was on hand, but on advice of counsel refused to give the names. The first witness examined was President Sherman, of the Stock Yard Company. His testimony gave an insight into the extent of business and business methods of the Company. In answer to the question as to whether there were any relations between the stock yards at Omaha and Kansas City and those at Chicago he said there was none.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—A cablegram received at the Navy Department announces the arrival of the Galena under command of Commander Sumner at Nicholas Mole, Hayti.

Admiral Geherardi of the Kearsage is also at St. Nicholas Mole in communication with the Navy Department. It is probable that the Kearsage will come north soon.

By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Among the witnesses examined in the Nagle case to-day was T. T. Williams, the journalist, who testified he had an interview with Judge Terry while the latter was in the Alameda county jail, and that Terry threatened to slap Justice Field's face and intimidate that he would be pleased to have Field attempt to use a weapon on him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Among the witnesses examined in the Nagle case to-day was T. T. Williams, the journalist, who testified he had an interview with Judge Terry while the latter was in the Alameda county jail, and that Terry threatened to slap Justice Field's face and intimidate that he would be pleased to have Field attempt to use a weapon on him.

By Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—George J. Gould and wife sailed to-day. Gould will go to Glasgow, Scotland, to inspect the new steamship "China," just completed for the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. She will be the fastest boat on the Pacific, the builders guaranteeing 18 knots an hour.

The Great Racing Event.

By Associated Press.]

SHEPHERD BAY, Sept. 4.—The great racing event of the year is the Futurity stakes, worth $60,000, to be decided between three and four o'clock this afternoon. The day is cool and the track is in splendid order. The general opinion seems to be that the finish will be between St. Carlo, Eberle and Penn P., although Chaos and Protection have many backers.

The first race of six furlongs was won by Cartoon, Oregon second and Seymour third; time, 1:11. Chaos wins the Futurity stakes. He is the property of Congressman W. L. Scott of Pennsylvania. St. Carlos was second.

By Associated Press.]

YUMA, A. T., Sept. 4.—The Senatorial Irrigation Committee stopped here this morning taking testimony, examining the fruit display, etc. They were highly pleased with the resources and expressed astonishment at seeing ripe dates and limes. They breakfasted at the hotel with the Citizens Committee, who accompanied them eastwards. Tacana county submitted extended reports and maps showing proposed reservoir sites and irrigable land in acres. The commission will reach Phoenix to-night.

By Associated Press.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The work of securing a jury in the Cronin case was resumed this morning. The ruling by Judge McConnell excusing talisman W. P. Turner for a cause, Turner testified he was a member of the American League, or Independent Order of Deputies, whose object is to prevent members of the Roman Catholic Church from holding or controlling any political offices in the country.

By Associated Press.]

PITTSBURG, Sept. 4.—The limited train from the East was delayed last night through one of the most unexpected and surprising accidents since the vestibule train started from Philadelphia and Harrisburg. The roofs of two coaches caught fire through friction which wore off the rubber and got the steel plates red hot. The fire was easily extinguished but the fact of the fire has set the railroad people to thinking.

By Associated Press.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—News just received says a boat capsized off 37th street a few minutes ago and four persons were drowned.

By Associated Press.]

Only three persons were drowned—a man named Borchers, a boy named Charles Blum and another boy.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 4.—The Prohibition State Convention opened this morning with many ladies as delegates. Prof. A. A. Hopkins, of Rochester, was elected temporary chairman. The usual committees were appointed and a recess taken.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 4.—Heavy floods prevail at Tetzcala in the State of Morelos. Several lives have been lost and the water is still rising. The floods at Tampico are increasing.

ARRAIGNED TO ANSWER.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Mrs Swinton and her son John Mann, two of the conspirators in the celebrated Hamilton case, were arraigned in court this afternoon and remanded until Friday.

BRIDGE, I would give all my wealth for half of your health.
"Sure, indeed, you need only give $5. for that the price of six bottles of J. V. S., as the boys call it. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla will make you as strong as me, ma'am."
Mrs. J. Barron, of 142 Seventh street, San Francisco, writes: "I have been taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla with immense benefit. It is perfectly splendid to build up nervous, run-down and worn out women." Mrs. Fred Loy, of 327 Ellis street, Mrs. G. Werner of 225 Berry street, and hundreds of others relate the same experience with the pure vegetable Sarsaparilla of this California company.

OPERA HOUSE DRY GOODS STORE.

THE OPERA HOUSE DRY GOODS STORE.

THIS store is now being generally known all over the State of Nevada as the popular ONE PRICE dry goods house, and its proprietor, C. W. Booton, is well known as the

Revolutionizer of Prices and the Re-Adjuster of Values

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods

Gents' Furnishings, Household Furnishings, Ready Made Clothing And Boots and Shoes.

Please note the various reasons by which I claim I have advantages over all competing houses.

1st. I buy for cash and cash only.
2d. I visit the markets in person frequently and buy my own goods myself for the lowest possible spot cash price.
3d. My aim and ambition is big business, quick sales and small profits. This is what I claim and what I strive for. Having this object in view to give everybody good value for their money, success is already achieved, as I challenge any one to dispute that I make the lowest prices.
4th. My store is the largest and best lighted of any in the city—the three large plate glass show windows which ornament the building would do credit to any large store in a large Eastern city, light being of great importance in any well regulated store.
5th. I engage the best and most experienced and skilled salesmen that can be found in this country. W. R. Lett has full charge of my store; his experience is second to none in this country, having had charge of departments for many years in the leading houses of New York City.
6th. I do just as I advertise; I do not advertise my goods at cost, as no intelligent person could swallow so silly an announcement as that; nevertheless, many of our merchants of to-day advertise under the head of selling goods at cost.
7th. All goods are marked in plain figures and no goods are misrepresented.

Having now given seven reasons why I can lead all competing houses in prices, I will venture still further to convince the general public by mentioning the contents of the different departments, thus showing that I carry an enormous and well-selected stock, which can only be fully realized by calling and examining the goods of the different departments.

In the Colored Dress Goods Department

I keep all the leading shades in plain colors, including Fine French Cashmere, French Camel's Hair, Beatrice Cloths, French Foulle, Tricot Cloths, Tricotine Cloths, Albatros, Nuns' Veiling, French Debeiges, Fancy Striped Alpaca, in plaids and stripes. I keep all the leading patterns found in the market.

The Black Goods Department

Is well stocked with all the latest and best known brands of French Cashmere, French Camel's Hair, French Soliel, Albatros, Nuns' Veiling, Sicilian Cloths, and all the leading brands of Black Alpaca, Black and Colored Silks in all the different makes.

The Corset Department

Receives special attention, as I carry all the leading makes, including the famous C. P. Corset, and also the P. D., which I sell at prices that defy competition.

The Kid Glove and Button Department

Are replete with all the shades that can possibly be obtained this side of the Rocky Mountains.

The Hosiery Department

Deserves special mention, as I have been supplying it during the past two weeks with the very best brands of Ladies' Cotton and also Wool Hose that are manufactured on this Coast. My stock of Ladies' Misses', Children's and Men's Hosiery is unsurpassed in the city. Passing on we come to Shoe Department.

This is a special branch that I have added to my business by special request of my customers, who continually urged me to put in a stock of Boots and Shoes, claiming, as they said—I using their own language—they were tired of paying high prices any longer. I subsequently added the above stock, and will say that my success in that department has superseded all my expectations. Men's and Boys' Shoes a specialty. Men's Shoes from $2.50 up.

In the Clothing Department

I cannot do it justice by venturing to describe the success that continually attends it. I can only add one passing remark, that the amount of clothing I have sold during the past year is a just guarantee that the public never fail to appreciate a ONE PRICE cash business. I sell good suits for men from $5.00 up.

In the Underwear Department,

Including Ladies' and Gents', I positively state that I sold more of these goods last season than any two competing houses. Knowing this, and then looking forward for an enormously increased trade in this line this coming Fall and Winter, I have spared no pains and have left nothing undone to secure one of the best selected and largest stock of Underwear ever brought to Reno. This true assertion will be more forcibly strengthened by anyone doubting it to call and examine the stock.

In the Domestic Department

I carry all the principal makes in Sheetings, Pillowcase Muslins, etc. Gingham and Calicoes in endless variety.

Thanking the people of Reno and the public in general for their kind patronage for the past year, and soliciting a continuance of the same, I remain, respectfully,

C. W. BOOTON,
Opera House Dry Goods Store.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge, Munday Esq., County Atty., ClayCo., Texas, says: "I have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother was also very low, with Malaria Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by the timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died had it not been for Electric Bitters."

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price, 50c and $1 at Hodgkinson's.

A GENEROUS MAN.

Matt. McCabe, of New Brunswick, Ill., offers to pay five dollars to any person troubled with bloody flux, who will take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy according to directions and does not get well in the shortest possible time. One-half of a 25-cent bottle of this remedy cured him of bloody flux, after he had tried other medicines and the prescriptions of physicians without benefit. Mr. McCabe is perfectly safe in making this offer, as more than a thousand bottles of this remedy are sold each day and it has never been known to fail in any case of colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhoea or bloody flux, when the plain printed directions were followed. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Cholera in Michigan.

Dr. F. D. Larke, of Rogers City, Michigan, says the epidemic of last year in Presque Isle county, in which so many persons lost their lives, was choleraic dysentery instead of cholera as first reported. He used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says it succeeded, where all other remedies failed. Not a single case was lost in which it was used. This remedy is the most reliable and most successful medicine known for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhoea and bloody flux. Twenty-five and fifty cent bottles for sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. You have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold, or any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson's.

HEAVY FIRES.

The Most Extensive Destruction of Timber Ever Known in the Sierras.

The long drouth has been productive of very heavy fires and immense tracts of country have been burned over on both sides of the summit, but more particularly on the west side. A lot of people who went there to gather fruit set the plum patch on fire and the result was the greatest destruction of timber, feed and fruit ever seen in that section. Two hundred men turned out to save Sierra City and Logansville from destruction. The west side of Sierra Buttes is covered with ashes and charred stumps far up towards the top and the fire is reaching right out for the timber over a big country to the northwest. As seen from the ridge road on the Milton divide it is one of the grandest sights conceivable, but by no means without a mournful side.

It will ruin lots of beautiful trees and drive the deer to pastures new, but at the same time the woodpeckers, rattlesnakes and spiders will get their just deserts. A very large fire was set by hunters on Duncan creek, a tributary of the middle fork of the American last month and it is still smoking. They were camped on the ridge and set a dozen rods away from the deer up to them. For the same reason dozens of fires are set by Indians and left to take their own course. The sheepmen have been roasted so much by the press and all the mountain fires laid to them that they are about the most careful people there are in the mountains now. Campers, hunters and Indians are setting fires to their own.

Passengers who have been over the Northern Pacific recently, report immense fires in Idaho and Montana. The smoke is so thick it is impossible to see a dozen rods anywhere. The telegraph this morning says a snow storm has done something to check them, but there may be a fresh outbreak.

"STOP MY PAPER"

The Governor of the State is Saving His Money and should be Encouraged.

Yesterday Governor Stevenson sent a notification to this office to stop sending the Appeal.—Carson Appeal.

The Governor must be saving his money, for the GAZETTE received the following letter from him a few days ago:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, CARSON CITY, NEV., Aug. 29. To the Proprietors of the GAZETTE: GENTLEMEN: Please send my bill for DAILY and WEEKLY GAZETTE to September 1st and discontinue my subscription. Yours truly, C. C. STEVENSON.

It is barely possible, however, that he has been "winged" and has no further use for the press of this State, but be that as it may, the GAZETTE sent its bill and got its money and has "no kick coming."

ROSE COGHLAN.

An Excellent Troupe to Present "Jocelyn" to a Reno Audience.

Rose Coghan is the next attraction at McKissick's Opera House. She appears next Wednesday evening and will doubtless draw a full house. The New York World says of her:

Rose Coghan appeared last night at the Star Theater in Charles F. Coghan's romantic drama Jocelyn. It made an instant hit with the audience and was greeted with an extraordinary amount of approbation. The play is pictorial, romantic and dramatic, and gives Miss Coghan an excellent opportunity to display some of her well-known qualities. Miss Coghan in the several scenes won her old triumph. The house was full of her old admirers, who deluged the stage with flowers. The appointments were notably correct for a play of the period, and the general performance was a smooth and effective one. Secure your seats early.

A FIRE.

The "Cooler" Fired by a Tramp Who Wanted to Go.

This morning at 6 o'clock an alarm of fire was sounded, when it was discovered that a building on Front street used to lock up drunks in and known as the "cooler" was on fire. It seems that a tramp, locked up last night, attempted to burn his way out, and had kindled a fire on the floor, which he was burning a hole through by keeping water on the surrounding, but it burned through and got on the opposite side of the cell partition and got beyond the control of the fellow. The locks were knocked off with an axe and the man was liberated, and took good care to get out as fast as his legs would carry him. The damage was slight, but Constable Upon mourns the loss of a tramp.

Midwell Stage Robber.

From Detective J. N. Thacker, who returned last evening from the pursuit of the Midwell stage robber, a GAZETTE reporter learns that the road agent's name is H. C. Hill, aged 39 years, and that for several years he took care of stock for a stage company which carried Wells-Fargo's express in Southern California. The prisoner was lodged in the Susanville jail, and he stands ready to plead guilty when called for trial. All of the $1,000 in currency was recovered. Mr. Thacker thinks the Sheriff is not dangerous; hurt, though very sore from his three bullet wounds.

The Miners' Union Picnic.

The Virginia Miners' Union is making extensive preparations for their picnic to take place at Treadway's Park, Carson, next Saturday. They have engaged two coaches to take the Truckee Base Ball team and the Renosites to Carson and got the fare reduced to $2 for the round trip. All who go are sure of having a good time and being royally entertained. Go and enjoy yourself.

A Live Firm.

The State Fair.

The Board of Directors are working hard to make the coming Fair the best ever held in the State. They have arranged a very interesting sports contest for every day. They have hung up liberal purses to be contended for and offer very big premiums to exhibitors in all branches of the State's industries. The livestock department is carefully looked after and promises to be the largest exhibit ever known. Poultry, swine, sheep, horses and cattle all come in for a share of the premiums offered and should be taken advantage of by exhibitors. Visitors can rest assured of good treatment at the hands of the society and the people at large.

Doing His Duty.

The Chief of Police was around to-day notifying those who had established permanent seats on the sidewalks to remove the same. All of them were removed on Virginia street. The seat and sign ordinances will be enforced, and should be.

A Shipwrecked Crew.

Special to the GAZETTE.] PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 4.—The steamship Geo. W. Elder, which arrived at Port Townsend this morning from Loring, brought the passengers and crew of the steamer Ancon, which was lost on the morning of August 28th in a gale. The passengers and baggage were saved, but the vessel was broken in the middle and is a total loss. The steamer Ancon, in getting away from Loring in Naha bay, ran on the rocks at 3 A. M. Wednesday, August 28th, stopping nearly amidships. Only a few of the passengers knew of the accident until nearly four o'clock, when boats were lowered and launched and orders given to take the ladies ashore first. Good order prevailed all the time among the passengers and crew. In less than an hour all were taken ashore without the loss of a life or any accident. The steamer broke in twain near her walking beam, thus becoming a complete wreck. The passengers were quartered in cannery and Indian huts and cared for by the ship's company as well as possible until Sunday, September 1st, when the steamship Elder arrived and took all back to Port Townsend.

Fired Into the Crowd.

By Cable and Associated Press.] LONDON, Sept. 4.—The police fired upon a crowd of strikers who were obstructing the work of loading steamers, fatally wounding one man.

Be Merciful to Yourself.

And heed the appeals for assistance put forth by your liver, when the organs are out of order. Among these are distress in the right side and through the right shoulder blade, yellowness of the skin and eyeballs, furred tongue, sour breath, sick headache, and above all, irregularity of the bowels. The mercy you extend to the afflicted organ is wisely shown by a prompt course of medication with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, most genial of alteratives, and the hepatic gland early recognizes the deserved attention by resuming its secretory functions actively and regularly. Among the accompanying good results are renewed digestion, freedom from headache and a resumption of activity of the bowels. All bilious symptoms disappear, and appetite and sleep improve. Beneficent are the effects of the Bitters in malarial disease, kidney trouble, rheumatic ailments and nervousness.

The Devil in Brittany.

The devil plays a considerable part in Breton legends. He is at hand to take advantage of any rash expression, and when once he has got his victim into his power it is all that priests and penance can do to shake him off. Adele Houdin, of Erguy in Upper Brittany, being too poor to buy clothes, was distressed at the sight of her rags, and one day, when more than usually resentful, she was wicked enough to declare, "I have no clothes and I can't go anywhere; I would give myself to the fiend to be dressed as well as others." Some days after, when she had quite forgotten this speech, there came to her cottage, which stood alone, in the dusk of the evening a fine gentleman, who was willing to give her money and anything that she liked if she engaged in writing to be his at the end of three years unless the money was repaid. She agreed, and was soon supplied with the clothes which she desired. She lost no time in displaying her finery, and the neighbors were curious to know how she came by it. Some young men resolved to investigate the matter, but their curiosity was soon cooled by horrible sights and sounds, so that they went to the Rectory with the story that Adele had given herself to the fiend. Adele herself was examined, and confessed that there was something wrong with the feet and hands of her visitor. "In the evening the Rectory went with two other priests, and passed his stole round the neck of the fiend; but the fiend tore to shreds all the stoles in the parish, and beat the two priests. There remained but one stole, which belonged to a young vicar, who was un petit saint homme. This he could not destroy, and the girl was rescued; but the devil, as he went, carried off more than half the house, which remained in ruins and in spite of every attempt to rebuild it." Often the fiend takes the form of an animal which follows his victim about and cannot be shaken off. In one story a girl is followed by a sheep, which the dog refuses to attack, and the farm boy cannot beat off. It followed her to the door of her house, and she was so terrified that she became a religious and the boy a priest. In another story a boy, whose mother had wished for a son, "even though the fiend fiend should take him," was followed every day to school by a dog, which took the little finger of his left hand in his mouth, and sucked it all the way. The boy wasted away, until at length the cause was discovered. The priest exorcised the demon for the time, but deliverance from his power was not to be obtained without the severest penances.

Servian Mountaineers.

Mountaineers are said to be "always freemen;" one can with equal truthfulness add that the costumes of mountaineers' wives and daughters are always more picturesque than those of their sisters in the valleys. In these Balkan mountains their costumes are a truly wonderful blending of colors, to say nothing of fantastic patterns, apparently a medley of ideas borrowed from Occident and Orient. One woman we just passed in wearing the flowing pantaloons of the Orient, of a bright yellow color, a tight-fitting jacket of equally bright blue; around her waist is folded many times a red and blue striped waistband, while both head and feet are bare. This is no holiday attire; it is the ordinary, every-day costume.

A Western Pack Train.

We had often heard of pack trains, but our ideas had never assumed a definite form until it was our good fortune to witness the packing and departure of fifty mules and three horses, with five drivers. The merchandise all having been previously collected and carefully packed (a labor requiring many days, as every whiskey barrel must be enshrouded in burlaps, and other goods made into bales), the mules are led into a large open shed and placed opposite each other and facing the bales, upon which the weight of each is marked. The animals are then called out of the ranks by their respective names, and respond by taking a step or two forward. Leather blinders are placed over the eyes of the animal to be laden; then a saddle, cloth or blanket; then the "apparatus," immense pannier-like arrangements, securely fastened on by the united efforts of two men, while the mule, who is no novice in the business, resists their efforts as much as possible by puffing himself up, and making it difficult to accomplish the operation. The smaller animals are packed first and with the lighter goods, two bundles of corresponding weight being placed in opposite panniers. It requires two or three men to lift these burdens to their positions, where they must be held until as many more strap and rope them. The mule, meantime, makes all the trouble he can, knowing that he is being imposed upon; he groans and grunts, kicks and squeals, and in some instances lies down, and tries to roll over, as soon as released from the hands of his tormentors, and it requires all the persuasion of kicks and blows, vigorously applied, to induce him to rise. The weights placed upon them vary from two hundred and twenty-five pounds to four hundred and eighty, the latter being the weight of two barrels of whiskey. They are a motley crew. Some have merely bags piled one upon another to an immense height; and others are almost lost to sight between two square boxes; two have stoves on their backs, whose protruding pipes look bruised and battered, after the attempts of their carriers to roll over. Beans and sugar, kerosene and candles, tea, coffee and oysters, with everything else that is consumed in a mining camp, is placed on the backs of these animals.

The Tragedy of "Virgilius."

On May 17th, 1880, "Virgilius" was produced for the first time. Great expectations concerning its merits were entertained by the town, and a crowded house gathered to witness the performance. And in the pit sat Sheridan Knowles, by turns radiant with hope and dejected by fear. The first act fell flat on an audience filled with high anticipations; even the second act failed to effect the house, principally because Charles Kemble, who suffered from a cold, could scarce be heard; but, suddenly regaining his voice, in the third act he aroused interest and gained applause. Macready, inspired by enthusiasm, acted with unusual fervor. In the character of Virgilius, to quote the Times of the following morning, "he touched the passions with a more masterly hand, and evinced deeper pathos than on any former occasion." Interest now deepened to enthusiasm; cheers greeted the conclusion of every act; sobs and exclamations attended the great catastrophe where Virgilius stabs his daughter, and the curtain fell on a house excited by terror and delight. The tragedy took the town by storm. "Peals of approbation," says the European Magazine, "attended the announcement of this successful tragedy." It was played for fourteen nights, and was received with unabated interest. Knowles was advised to have it printed immediately, that he might reap remuneration from its sale. To aid him in this respect Macready called on his friend John Murray, and requested that he would publish "Virgilius." Mr. Murray promised he would give it his consideration, but acting on the advice of his reader, the Rev. H. Milman, afterwards Dean of St. Paul's, he returned the manuscript in a few days with thanks. Knowles then offered it to Ridgway, of Piccadilly, who at once accepted it, and in the course of a couple of months it passed into several editions. It was dedicated to Macready in the form of a letter which ran as follows: "My Dear Sir: What can I do less than dedicate this tragedy to you? This is a question you cannot answer, but I can. I cannot do less, and if I could do more I ought and would. I was a perfect stranger to you; you read my play and at once committed yourself respecting its merits. This perhaps is not saying much for your head, but it says a great deal for your heart, and that is the consideration which above all others makes me feel happy and proud in subscribing myself your grateful friend and servant, James Sheridan Knowles."

Habit, if wisely and skillfully formed, becomes truly a second nature, as the common saying is; but unskillfully and unmethodically directed, it will be, as it were, the ape of nature, which imitates nothing but life, but only clumsily and Oregon is one of the most productive States in the Union. Its vast mineral regions contain gold, silver, copper, iron and coal. Its immense tracts of grazing lands support thousands of cattle and sheep, and its extensive agricultural regions produce all the cereals in abundance, the yield per acre being, in some instances, the largest in the world. Among the useful and valuable products of the West Coast may be mentioned Oregon Kidney Tea, which has proved a boon to thousands afflicted with pain in the back and kidney difficulties. It is purely of vegetable composition and never fails. Sold by William Plummer.

The immediate symptoms of Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, are a distressing sense of weight, oppression and fullness in the stomach, heartburn, loss of appetite, foul breath, belching, flatulency, nausea, pains in the shoulders and breast. Dr. Henley's Bile Beans Tonic promotes healthy digestion and removes all unhealthy symptoms. Sold by William Plummer.

This is the season of the year when the raw, cold winds create and havoc with the hands and complexion. Soft, white hands and a clear complexion are the boon assuredly preserved by the frequent application of Dufard's Specific. If rubbed into the skin it leaves no greasy surface, and the skin absorbs it. Sold by William Plummer.
